Fellow Students:

Another school year has gone swiftly by, and many memorable events have taken place. We have tried to capture some of these in story and in picture so that your memories will be refreshed as you turn through the pages of this book in years to come.

Thank you for your part in helping to make another edition of THE ACORN possible.

Sincerely,

The Acorn Staff

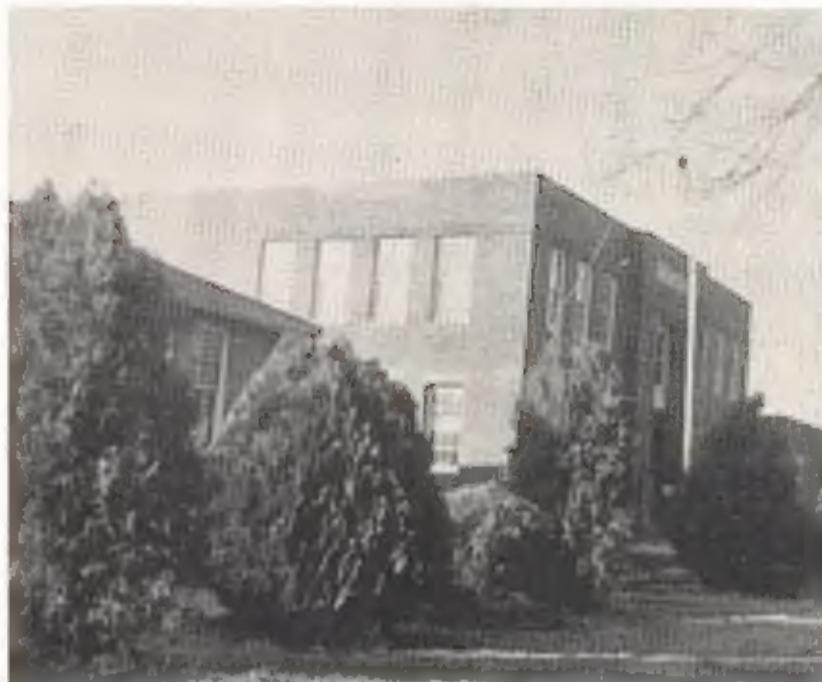

Dedication

DR. JOE EVERHEART

Because of the high esteem with which we regard him, and because of the constant interest he has exhibited in our school and the youth of our community, we proudly dedicate the 1956 edition of THE ACORN to Dr. Joe Everheart.

Dear Friends:

In a short time another school term will come to a close; another milestone to mark your progress on the highway which leads to success, or failure, in life will have been reached. The purpose of this school is to try to provide such a wholesome atmosphere and such worthwhile experiences, along with your training in the fundamentals of subject matter and basic skills, that you will be prepared to meet the problems of life successfully and to able to take advantage of the opportunities when they present themselves. Regardless of how well we have succeeded in doing this, the final decision will be yours.

The progress that you have made during this school year and the wonderful spirit of cooperation which has been manifested by students, teachers, lunch room workers, bus drivers, and the entire community has been pleasing to me. As we approach the close of the school term, I can truthfully say that, in my estimation, this has been one of the best school years in which I have had the pleasure of working.

Congratulations to you for a job well done, and may the richest blessings of life be yours in the days to come.

Sincerely yours,

George Cheatham

Dear Friends:

As we come to the end of another school year, I know that each student is able to look back over the year's work and be proud of the accomplishments in his study. I hope that each of you can say, honestly, "I have done my best." You have been in the process of laying out or the Foundation for your future. That next few school months shouldn't your efforts, then, have been your very best?

I would like to say "thanks" for the loyal support that has been given our school this year by the parents and citizens in this community. Your presence at our various activities during the year and all your other means of exhibiting interest in our school are vital factors in contributing to its success.

Thank you again for your contribution in making this a very pleasant, progressive school term.

Sincerely yours,

Lloyd A. Senn
